

North Yolla Bally.

United States
Board on Geographic Names
Washington

Sept., 18th, 1907., 100-

To the County Clerk,

Red Bluff, Tehama Co., California.

DEAR SIR:

The United States Board on Geographic Names has been asked to determine the proper spelling and name of two mountains in range bordering your county on the West, called North Yallo Bally and South Yallo Bally mountains and Yallo Bally Mts.

Will you please answer the following questions, taking care to write names plainly, sign your name and address, and return this paper in the inclosed envelope, which requires no postage. If you are not informed concerning this name, kindly make inquiries or hand these papers to some one who is.

Very respectfully,

E. S. Sloan
Secretary.

1. By what name is this place or feature best known in your neighborhood?

Yolla Bally, and also Yalla Bally

2. Is it spelled in any other way? I think not

3. Is it known by any other name?

No - It is pronounced
Yalla Bolly

4. What is the origin, history, or meaning of the name?
The name was derived from a tribe of Indians, known as the Mad River Indians, and is supposed to mean "High Mountains"

5. Give here any other information which you may think pertinent or helpful in determining the name, form, or spelling which should be adopted.

I think that the correct spelling would be "Yalla Bally" as that seems to fit the Indian dialect better than those given by the white man.

Date, Oct 5th, 190

W. A. Smith

Attorney
Tehama Co. Cal
